

LOGIXML ANNOUNCES EXPANSION OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Alex Pinchev and Renee Lorton, Successful Software Industry Entrepreneurs Approved as New Directors

McLean, VA (July 18, 2008) - LogiXML, the fast-growing leader in interactive, Web-based business intelligence software, today announced that the Board of Directors has approved the addition of two new members. Alex Pinchev, EVP and President of Global Sales at Red Hat Inc., and Renee Lorton, former SVP and General Manager of Cognos, have officially joined the Board, expanding the number of Directors to five.

During the course of his 25-year career, Mr. Pinchev has built entrepreneurial and international acumen and has led several successful start-up companies, including MainControl, Inc., where he served as chairman, president, CEO, and founder. He is the Executive Vice President and President for Red Hat's global sales, services, and field marketing organizations. He is also responsible for driving strategic relationships with global customers and business partners while overseeing geographical and US public sector operations.

Ms. Lorton's experience spans over 20 years of senior leadership in enterprise software and technology, including numerous senior management positions in Business Intelligence and ERP. In addition to her tenure at Cognos, she also served in executive positions at PeopleSoft, PricewaterhouseCoopers, and Best Software. She is currently president of White Rock Advisors.

"Attracting such highly-qualified, successful technology entrepreneurs to our board is directly related to our amazing growth for the past three years," said Arman Eshraghi, CEO and Founder. "I am delighted that both Renee and Alex have agreed to serve as directors and lend their operational strengths and insights to our executive team so we can continue to effectively execute our strategies and successfully deliver our software solutions in the U.S. and abroad."

"I am enthusiastic about the tremendous success to date that LogiXML has experienced, and I am excited about assisting this extremely capable team to capitalize on the tremendous market momentum they have created," said Alex Pinchev.

"With a significant number of reference-able commercial and government clients and with the completion of two very strong quarters, the Company is well-positioned for the balance of 2008."
